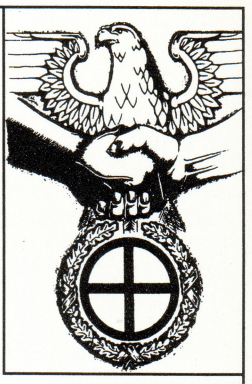
BRITISH MOVEMENT WHERE WE STAND



The British Movement is a National Socialist organisation and as such is dedicated to the creation of a mono-racial society based on the foundations of Family and Folk, Blood and Soil, Race and Nation.

Britain has sunk into a stagnant ditch as this century closes. What point is there in foreign policy when the government cannot put our own country in order? Why is Britain pumping funds overseas and interfering in other countries when Britain is in a mess?

The political, economical and social chaos which Britain has become can only be resolved by a total break with the exiting system, only through National Socialism within a new concept and a new system can future be secured. A National Socialist New Order built on the principles of Race, Nationhood and citizenship of the Folk, understanding the law and applying the law of Race, Blood and Soil.

BRITISH MOVEMENT FORGED FROM STEEL

WE BELIEVE....

RACE IS ALL: Our folk must again respect their past and strive towards their great destiny. We must instil in all generations an awareness of the importance of Race and purity of blood. Mongrelisation destroys the heritage and stifles all future achievements. Our civilisation is secure only in purity of Race and belief in destiny.

MONEY THE SERVANT: A stable economy is one which reflects the true worth of the community. Money is a mere token of this wealth - a means of exchange to allow convenient trading of goods and services. The modern notion of money controlling the people must be broken and a total change in the financial system is required.

A PART OF NATURE: We must ensure that the beauty and resources of our earth are preserved for the benefit of future generations of our folk. We must not waste or destroy the natural order - the balance of which is so vital for the well being of all life. Our new moral code will not allow scientists, businessmen and politicians alike playing at God in the name of curiosity, monetary gain or profit.

BEYOND CAPITALISM AND COMMUNISM: The ideologies of the old world strive for the total enslavement of all peoples. We are against the materialistic rat-race of lust under Capitalism as well as the monotonous drudgery in the grey bureaucrats of Communism.

EUROPE A FAMILY: The peoples of Europe stem from a common racial root. We must enjoin in spiritual union for the defence of our freedom against common enemies. Our strong Race founded block will scale new heights in all fields for the advancement of our vibrant culture.

THE ETERNAL STRUGGLE: Mankind must continually strive for higher, better life-struggle for a brighter, more noble world. Each day must bring new challenges in the perpetual struggle towards greater civilisation. There can be no perfect world but our folk must strive towards its improvement leaving behind the decay of today's moribund world.

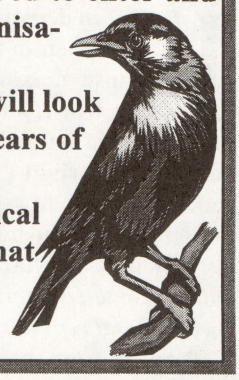
The lack lustre policies of New Labour will ruin Britain in record time, our industries will fail, our economy will crash, our workforce will look out over industrial desolation and wastelands beside which the Tory led devastation of the 1980's will pale in significance. Taxation, rising interest rates, spiralling inflation, financial mis-management and corruption in local government. Third-World immigration into Britain will increase as the Labour Government removes restrictions on entry to "family members", dependants and prospective marriage partners. Asylum seekers will be allowed to enter and stay as a soft-option as the Home Office bows to pressure from Immigration Welfare organisations and ethnic minority civil rights groups.



Broadsword predicts that by the turn of the century, the average British man or woman will look out across an economic and industrial wasteland, ruined by three short but devastating years of New Labour government.

New levels of political power in the hands of ethnic minority interest groups and political factions will dominate the local political structure of our larger towns and cities. What chance will the "native British" have then?

SAY NOTHING!

If arrested, especially if in your own home, it may happen in the early hour's (04.00 - 06.00) to cause maximum confusion and fear. The police will try to make you dress quickly and go with them immediately. But you must refuse and tell them you have the right (as you do) to make yourself respectable. Take your time to get washed, shaved and dressed smartly. Do not let yourself be hurried at any time.

When at the station tell the sergeant when interviewed: 'I will refuse to co-operate, but this does not mean that I am guilty. I want (legal rep) to represent me!.

You will not be interviewed immediately, they will leave you in a cell for a few hours. The interrogator's interviewers will have been warned so they will be fully rested and have had a full breakfast. They will be smartly dressed to make you feel second rate in their presence, but by taking your time hours earlier to get washed and shaved, you will be in that position.

During the interview tell them nothing without your legal rep present; don't answer questions and don't be intimidated. Do not look down at the floor or at the walls; never appear nervous or frightened, keep your head up and look them straight in the eye as though your taking in all their details.

If held for any length of time in a cell, exercise, keep fit, walk around and keep alert the entire time. Sleep and eat at every opportunity. Whatever food you are offered, sit down, eat it and try to enjoy it, it will help you sustain your energy and to resist their questions. (Without food you will become weak and vulnerable to their questions.)

You must never appear tired or sleepy, always look alert. Never let them see you might be weakening or vulnerable, show you have a resolve like steel.

Before any interview starts, take the time to use the toilet. After they begin to interview, they will refuse to let you go to the toilet because they know that when someone wants to go desperately they will say almost anything just so they can go.

If they refuse to let you go, take action, do it there in the room in front of them. It will be their fault and they know it. The next time you ask to go they won't say no.

They also realise that when anyone wants to defecate desperately enough the concentration goes and they are vulnerable.

If at any time the police start to beat you up, hit back! Don't be afraid to hit back, and the harder they hit you, the harder you hit back. They know they shouldn't hit you but they will, especially the nasty bastards, the hard men who want to break you.

If they begin to hit you while another holds you, then break free and curl up into a ball and cover your head and face. As soon as they stop, demand to see your doctor. Tell them you refuse to see any other doctor, and if one comes in, tell him you demand to see your own doctor. Make sure you give your doctor's name and address and keep demanding it. This will scare the police responsible as your doctor will note any marks or injuries you have suffered.

Be ready to accept the good cop bad cop routine. The good cop will bring you food and drink, tell you he can help if you answer their questions and co-operate. The bad cop will shout and swear and try to scare you into answering questions and co-operating. Have none of it. Answer no questions until you have seen your legal adviser.

EFFORTS OF YESTERDAY

In the first decade of the British Movement as a political entity, the priority of all the Movement's efforts was firstly to revive the ideology of National Socialism in Britain, and secondly to put the Movement's name and purpose into the public mind. This was achieved by and large by 1983 through direct action, wide ranging recruitment built on the media image of the British Movement and a series of high profile marches and rallies.

Although the Movement was able to recruit large numbers of young people and spread our literature and propaganda material across the country, this wave of populism was a double-edged sword. There were many people who were "media recruits" or "fashion recruits". Uncommitted to the struggle and only interested in being part of a notorious and politically aggressive organisation. It was the media image these people were following not the ideology of National Socialism. Mass recruitment brought in obvious problems of screening out undesirables, and many untrained and untested members were given organiser status to cope with rapid expansion. This was part of the Movement's undoing in this period. Now the Movement looks towards the future and once again we look towards influencing large numbers of the younger generations. We need people of all ages and at all levels of society, but the youth are tomorrow's leaders and tomorrow's activists. We look to youth and the future, a youth betrayed by conventional politics and betrayed by the multi-cultural society, an angry generation.

RUDOLF HESS

In August 1997 the anniversary of the death of Rudolf Hess was marked by National Socialist "actions" across Germany and by smaller events in other parts of Europe with a particularly significant demonstration by combined European nationalities in Denmark. The British broadsheet newspaper "The Guardian", noted for its Left-wing stance ran an article entitled "Rudolf Hess still raises hell from the grave". The mainstream media commentators and politicians cannot grasp the fact that Rudolf Hess, his political life, his imprisonment and the manner of his death is an issue which will not go away.

The Hess marches and rallies every August are not a celebration, but a signal to the Zionists and the Democrats that the death of Rudolf Hess will not be forgotten nor forgiven. The life long imprisonment of Rudolf Hess and his determined refusal to abandon his National Socialist beliefs despite everything that was done to him is an example of the National Socialist principle of the Triumph of the Will. The fact that Hess was murdered in Spandau Prison after a cruel lifetime of solitary confinement damns the democrats of Western politics for the hypocrites that they are. The death of Rudolf Hess did not signal the end of National Socialism but gave new weight to the resurrection of National Socialism in Germany and across the world as an ideology which refuses to die.

ROCK COFFIN

Newly-released wartime documents reveal that Britain had intended to seal six men up inside the Rock of Gibraltar to spy on the Germans after it fell to the Nazis. They were to be given food and water supplies for seven years.

A cavern was to be 45ft long by 16ft wide and 8ft high. Would Britain have built such a coffin.

YES!

AWAKE THE PAST AND HAUNT THE DEAD

Why is it that after half a century the media are determined more than ever to rake up the past to haunt the dead. 'Let sleeping dogs lie,' certainly isn't a phrase that is well practised in the world of the media, especially if it is in favour of the Zionists.

Josef Goebbels is again the brunt of Zionist ridicule as the papers reveal the whereabouts of Lida Baarova the proclaimed mistress that lived with Goebbels in his villa in Berlin. Hitler is supposed to have ended the relationship when he refused to allow Goebbels to divorce his wife, Martha, for her.

Miss Baarova, who now lives in Salzburg, Austria said: "I have torn up all the photographs with Goebbels, thanks to him I was ruined."

Now why, after fifty years, would the media be callous enough to search out an 82 year old lady suffering from Parkinson's disease, and can hardly move without help. (This is a rhetorical question)

Would such a disabled person of old age really be capable of giving such an interview? (This is not a rhetorical question, and the answer is plain enough to see.)

In May 1941, in a field near Glasgow, a Messerschmitt carrying Rudolf Hess crash-landed on a mission that was to fail. 56 years later, behind the publicity for a new German biography, lies a series of historical puzzles that are relevant today as on the night Hess fell from the sky.

- Why, in the second year of the war against Germany, did Hess believe that he would be welcome in Britain?
- Why did he think Britain would jump at his plan for an immediate cease-fire and then a joint British-German attack on the Soviet Union?
- What role did the British Secret Intelligence Service (SIS) play?
- Why did President Roosevelt say, when briefed by Churchill on the Hess affair, "I wonder what is really behind this story?"
- Most important of all, why more than 50 years after the war are the Foreign Office files on Hess still closed and due to remain so until 2017?

Could the new book by German historian Rainer Schmidt hold the truth?

RACE MIXING

How many times do you walk down the street only to see a sad and pathetic couple coming the other way, one of which is a white female and one of which is a non-white male? How sick does it make you feel to see a white female who has turned her back on her race for ever? To see a girl or woman who has most probably gone against her parents' and grandparents' wishes of a white marriage and white grandchildren to fall for something totally alien. Alien customs, alien culture and alien genes. In time her black/Asian Oriental/ Arab male will change her from being a beautiful white woman into somebody most Aryan men would not spit on. Many will start to adopt the culture and habits of 'their man', speaking with his accent, his street language, and wearing ghetto fashion clothes, because it looks 'cool'', listening to loud jungle rhythms and taking 'cool' drugs. Plenty of T-shirts with African and Caribbean logos, rasta pendants, Bob Marley colours and reggae beat. The down side for her will be her coffee coloured offspring, the free living marital arrangements and regular beatings, perhaps even prostitution, most will become single-parents.

You would expect her parents to disown her for throwing away her White heritage and genealogy. But how many actually do? Her offspring will not know what they are, or what culture to follow. Most will consider their father's culture to be their destiny, as their non-European features and pigmentation will be in his likeness. Many of these renegade white women will in time be cast aside in favour of a younger white woman. What then for her? Who amongst her own kind will want her then? Possibly some weak-hearted liberal. Most will not want a black man's cast-offs, a mistake like this woman's is a mistake for life.

Closer to home for myself is a particularly sickening problem. In the town's of West Yorkshire there are endless young white girls going out with Asians. Day after day you see car after car cruising around the town centres for hours on end stopping only to pick up these gullible girls. Nine times out of ten, if you can ignore the loud music blaring out and look into the car, you will see the back seat crammed full of young white girls.

Many times I have been relieved to see one of these cars stop at a group of girls where the driver has received a two-fingered salute and a mouthful of abuse. Unfortunately too often the younger girls get into the cars. Do their parents know what type of people their daughters are hanging around with? Do they care? How many turn a blind eye or weakly accept it as part of the modern, multi-cultural world?

When I see a mixed race couple approaching me, I find myself giving an unbelieving stare towards the girl. On many occasions the white girl will look back as if to say, "I know, but I am trapped." Once the novelty of being different has worn off, not many look too happy being dragged around as a trophy, a triumph over white society.

The problem of race-mixing will only increase unless parents and friends warn these girls of the dangers ahead. They will be victims of their own short-sightedness. They should be told, that betraying your race is not "cool", it is degrading. Now with the New (socialist) Labour party in power, non-white immigration will increase, and the situation worsen. More and more of these non-white males will roam our streets praying on the gullible and foolish white women and girls who have been blinded by multi-racial propaganda.

EVOLUTION FLAWED!

It is believed that the whole of humanity came forth from one continent, Central Africa, and that all the different races stem from there.

Yet why do the present day denizens of Africa - the Negroid - have the physiology that one could consider has being evolved from apes and yet other races around the world differ immensely? Why is there such a diversity between the Aryan man and the Negroid?

It is rather perplexing that the further north into Europe one goes, the more evolved the races appear to have developed while those races remaining in the supposed land of human origin seem to have lacked the ability to develop much beyond the physiology of the Neanderthal. The cranium of the Negroid differs little from that of the Neanderthal and the ape.

With the exception of the Aryan man, why are all other races of the world dominantly black haired, dark eyed and dark skinned? Even the middle-eastern Asians, who are the closes to Aryan feature still differ by this fact and others.

It is believed that the American Indians - who are Mongoloid - were the first settlers of the Americas that walked from Asia over dry land that is now the Bering Strait. This also means that the Eskimos and other races of Mongoloid arrived in the arctic from Asia.

Therefore, if this is the correct method of how the Mongoloids appeared on both sides of the Atlantic, if there had not been migration from Asia, Aryan man would be the only race far north, and the only race to have evolved past the stage of ape inheritance. Why should Aryan man be unique?

If the Australian aborigines really did migrate from south-east Asia, why are they of Negroid features and not of Mongoloid? If the first ships large enough to sail the open sea were first built in Egypt 5000 years ago, how did aborigines migrate to Australia over 40,000 years ago? Australia would have detached from Asia millions of years ago. Recent evidence has been found to suggest that archaic man was in Australia and Asia between 100,000 - 1000,000 years ago, thousands of years before Out of Africa as predicted in the theory of evolution. This is only the start of the enigma, the evolutionists are at an impasse.

Why are the boundaries of Aryan, Negroid, middle-eastern Asian and Mongoloid features so precisely different? There does not seem to be any in-between, you are either one or the other.

The reason for these few questions is to show that there are many contradiction in the theory of evolution.

American hieroglyphs speak of White men in the distant past known as the Wise ones who passed on great knowledge. All this in a time that contradicts evolution. ('Fingerprints of the Gods' by Graham Hancock is the most recent book out concerning such matters.)

NATIONALIST DEFIANCE

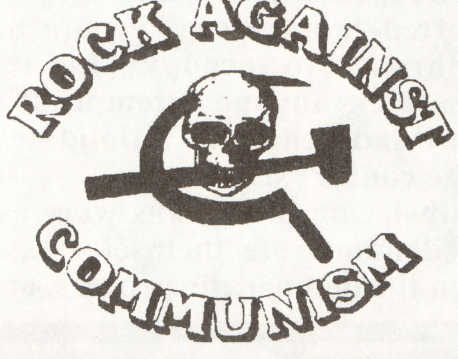
Throughout July the combined forces of the Security Services (M15- Domestic section), Special Branch, the uniformed and plain clothes (CID) departments of a dozen county Police forces, and their assorted spies, infiltrators and informers struggled to discover the secret venue for this White Youth music event. In addition the rag-bag forces of the Marxist-Left and their fellow travellers of the anti-fascist/anti-racist organisations worked hand in glove with the forces of the State to find the location of the Aryan Music Fest and stop it happening.

This was not a British Movement organised event, but there was involvement at a number of levels by BM activists and this is one reason why the security of the venue was never compromised. There is much to be learned from this particular example of State over-reaction. The Movement must judge how the Government will now respond to any large scale National Socialist gathering in Britain. We must look at how closely the Marxist Left and anti-fascist groups have collaborated with the Police and Security Services (all pals together).

At the end of the day, victory was with the forces of Nationalist defiance, in spite of all that was thrown against them, a gig was held.

Our political enemies will never allow this to be called a victory by our wider movement, but what sticks in their collective throats is that fact that they did everything they could to smash the event and still it happened. Small campaigns and small successes grow into great offensives and greater victories.

Broadsword would like to thank The Saxon magazine for the cover photograph and the photograph brought to you in this article.



THE "DEMOCRATIC" POLICE STATE FAILS TO PREVENT

NATIONALIST DEFIANCE

NATIONAL SOCIALIST / WHITE NATIONALIST MUSIC EVENT

August 1997. For over a week the national news-media carried the story of a proposed "neo-nazi" Aryan Music Festival being scheduled for the weekend of August 9th, allegedly to be held at a secret outdoor venue in either Wales or the South-West of England. The Police were on full alert across Wales and the South-West and in total more than a dozen county forces were involved in surveillance of known British Nationalist or National Socialist activists and identified organisers of the Blood and Honour music organisation. This was to be a private, invitation only event, not a public gathering. But still the usual hostile forces set out to prevent the gig from going ahead.

In addition to the uniformed and undercover forces of the state, the violent and noisier elements of the political extreme-Left were also out to halt the gig. As usual the professional "anti-fascists" of the 'Searchlight' organisation were busy feeding exaggerated stories to the media; stirring up Members of Parliament into 'rent-a-quote' soundbites; generally orchestrating the "anti-racist" opposition; and trying hard through its spies and informers to find the venue and wreck it in advance. Never afraid to use direct threats or other illegal methods, the assorted "anti-fascist" groups made their usual threats to occupy the redirection points, attack anyone attempting to attend the event and generally intimidate the owners of the concert site.

The mainstream politicians were as eager as ever to demonstrate themselves as firm believers in the democratic process, and dedication to human rights issues and the fight against racism. Keen to put their names to suppressing the "Rock Against Communism" event were, Dafydd Wigley leader of Plaid Cymru (the Welsh Nationalist Party); Glenys Kinnock, Labour Party MEP for South East Wales; Wayne David, MEP for South Wales Central and leader of the European Parliamentary Labour Group.

By Saturday 9th of August, the combined forces of the state and the Far-Left had failed to discover the venue, although the Police had been very busy excluding potential overseas concert goers and musicians as well as raiding the Cardiff home of Billy Bartlett, a member of the group Celtic Warrior. In a typical act of oppression, the Police raid was carried out with excessive force and maximum over-reaction; over forty Police officers with dogs, smashed into the house in the early morning. There were just four people sleeping in the house, but the Police deliberately shattered every window and smashed in all the doors.

Despite all the heavyweight forces against them, the gig organisers were able to stage an event in Coventry in the West Midlands of England. Although the gig was not as big as originally planned, the bands played to an audience of about 250 (not the less than 150 reported by hostile agencies).

Of course the organised "anti-fascist" forces have claimed a great victory but for all their carefully rehearsed responses, they cannot hide that fact that they failed to find the original site; they failed to halt the gig taking place at the backup venue; they failed to live up to their boasted intentions of preventing any kind of Blood and Honour concert taking place that weekend.

The editor of "Searchlight" magazine and self-styled spokesman of the "anti-fascist movement" later claimed : "our operation has been a success because there has been an arrest in Wales and exclusions of some of the Americans. No foreign bands were able to play in the final event and numbers were reduced."

Notice his emphasis on "our operation". In other words the Police operation was considered to be part and parcel of the overall strategy by the extreme-Left. There can be little doubt that "Searchlight" and its media-hungry editor were feeding as much information as possible to Special Branch and other elements in the Security Services in order to take part in the state-sponsored suppression of a privately organised and privately funded event. (Not for the first time).

Note to Broadsword's overseas readers: This is how much freedom of expression and opinion the British state allows these days. Note how the 'democratic' politicians line up with the Police and violent extreme-Left organisations to stop an event that they are opposed to on ideological grounds.

A new campaign poster (The Visible Woman) as been released in Kirklees, West Yorkshire in a bid to rid the area of racism.

The poster - to be shown on the back of buses - depicts a Black woman with a white stripe, a moustache and the words: "What does she have to do to get a job?"

Commission for Racial Equality deputy chairman Zahida Manzoor said: "This campaign will highlight the contribution which has been made and will continue to be made by women from ethnic minority communities". The campaign aims to improve awareness of the needs of ethnic minority women and their potential.

Broadsword is contemplating a similar poster depicting a White woman with a black stripe, a goatee wire beard and the words: "What does she have to do to get fair benefits?" Unfortunately it would be racist propaganda. That's Democracy for you.

THIS LITTLE PIGGY GOT BANNED

The world has turned CRAZY, Britain has gone NUTS, and Noddy quietly laughs to himself at such absurdities. The Jews have kept quiet on this one while the Muslims throw a tantrum.

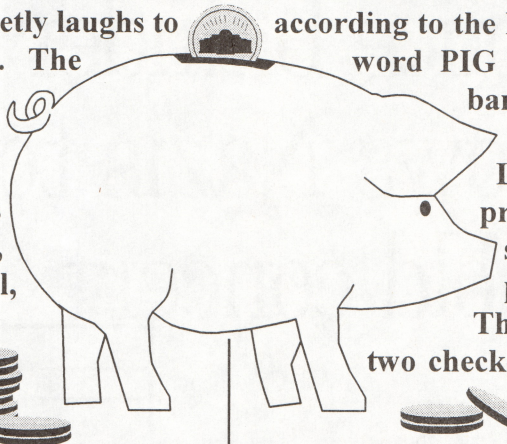
Noddy's old enemy, Mrs Whitehouse, may now be out of the lime-light, but the barrage and insults on our heritage is never ending.



So what is the problem with little piggy? Well, according to the Muslims, it is offensive to say the word PIG let-alone print a cartoon piggy bank on the receipts at Tesco's.

The store has now had to introduce two checkouts with plain rolls to cater for Muslims.

We would just like to say:

NATIONAL SOCIALIST THOUGHT FOR THIS ISSUE

"Against us we have the inumerable army of all those who are lazy-minded and indifferent rather than evil, and those whose self interest leads them to uphold the present state of affairs. On the apparent hopelessness of our great struggle is based the magnitude of our task and the possibilities of success. A battle-cry which from the very start will scare off all the petty spirits, or at least discourage them, will become the signal for a rally of all those temperaments that are of fighting metal. And it must be clearly recognised that if a highly energetic and active body of men emerge from a nation and unite in the fight for one goal, thereby ultimately rising above the inert masses of the people, this small percentage will become masters of the whole. World history is made by minorities if these numerical minorities represent in themselves the will and energy and initiative of the people as a whole."

The vicious circle of ignorance abounds not only within the intellect of the so-called educated, but within the uneducated also. People may react as indignant to the opening of this letter which is addressed to all people excluding none.

It is for people to decide their own numerical standard of I.Q., providing they understand the full potential power of each number within the numerics spoken of. Should not the proviso spoken of be understood, it will not bode well for a retaliatory letter of antagonistic view.

People who resent present-day political injustice via present-day governments should look deep into the crystal of their resentment. The crystal will reveal that their resentment is not totally of the people that incite political politics, but the educational standard of the politicians.

Throughout the centuries the crystal reveals the inaptitude of the politicians to meet the full requirements of the masses. This scenario of inaptitude is the overflow of ignorance of the requirements of each individual to attain a viable living of equality within the equilibrium of one earth, which by law should provide each person with the same standard of living, thus preventing animosity via class distinction coupled to unequal wealth. Meaning if one person is destitute by negligence of the masses, then all people should be destitute, and vice versa. Meaning if one person is very rich, then all people should be very rich by deliberation of the masses.

It must not be possible for a rich person to dominate his or her power of wealth to force slavery upon the masses to enforce political power as determined standard of living to the peoples of any country.

Until present concepts of democracy is put out of motion, and a higher and more civilised concept of fairness is established within the law of liberty, which does not mean free-will, the insidious, stagnant scenario of haves and have-nots will continue to expand deeper into animosity to the point of open warfare within the confines of free-will.

Within the confines of free-will people have the choice to make war through animosity. A country that pronounces war upon another country has the right to do so within the confines of free-will; the country of recipient war has the right of free-will to retaliate or abstain and become subservants to the country with the right of free-will to make war, which stems from animosity via ignorant people.

Now this country, Britain, must, by logic, resist the temptation of acceptance of multi-racialism, plus multi-culture. It is a useless endeavour for National Socialists to be led by the higher educated if they do not adhere to the principles of putting one's own house in order first.

A house divided will fall. Therefore, it is up to the members of the British Movement to strike the blow of severity, first against the indoctrinated ignorant, White British people.

To reveal the severe lack of intellect of the said people is to rebuff the indoctrinated with the truth of what will befall our White, young girls should further erosion of our culture be wiped aside by the indoctrination of the Muslims in the name of Allah.

If the teachings of Allah is to eradicate the woman of Islam from the same benefits as the males of Islam, then I, for one, would willingly cut the throat of Allah and never again permit the insidious name of Allah to be spoken anywhere upon this earth. Not only am I willing to cut the throat of Allah, but also the throats of all Muslims who follow Allah via the Mufti.

Now for any white person to accept the Muslims in this land, Britain, must realise that to permit them to breed in this country and gradually extend the doctrines of Allah must be prepared to accept the annihilation of pleasure of our young ladies in the institution of marriage.

When it is understood that the insidious mental intellect, not only of the Muslims, but also the stupid intellect of the White people by permitting the teachings of Allah to mutilate young girls by ridding them of the clitoris as circumcision, is beyond belief of a loving God.

Now I am a White man, I am a National Socialist, if white people wish to accuse me of being a bad person for trying to protect our daughters from the true bestiality of man, the Muslims, then let them do so by the press; and I, for my part, will defend National Socialism to the bitter end within the confines of correct law.

NATIONALISM IN THE PAST.

LEWISHAM AUGUST 13TH 1977

The National Front march to Lewisham in the summer of 1977 was the watershed in British Nationalist political activities of the period. The events surrounding Lewisham and its aftermath would lead directly to the Public Order Act of 1986 and determine the Home Office and Police attitude towards all future Nationalist and National Socialist public meetings, marches and rallies. The violence demonstrated at Lewisham by the organised forces of the extreme-Left and immigrant communities would force a major rethink on the tactics of the National Front and every other British Nationalist and National Socialist organisation since.

Twenty years ago on the afternoon of Saturday August 13th, the National Front assembled to march from New Cross in South London to Lewisham - the theme of the march was partly to protest against the threat of muggers on the streets of London and partly to protest against the continued influx of non-white immigrants into South London districts. National Front members and supporters from across London had gathered in the assembly area on Achilles Street, New Cross and were joined by smaller numbers of NF from across England, Scotland and Ulster with a token group of marchers from the French Front Nationale.

The planned march by the NF in South London had been announced publicly well in advance and had been the subject of great media debate. Of course all the mainstream newspapers and TV newsrooms were opposed to the event and there had been a mass mobilisation by immigrant welfare groups, anti-racist organisations, assorted Marxist and Trotskyist parties and sundry flotsam of the British political Left. Most vocal opposition to the NF march came from the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and ALCARAF (All Lewisham Committee Against Racism and Fascism). Despite the fact that the National Front was a legally recognised political party and that the Metropolitan Police had agreed to permit the march along a negotiated route, the anti-NF forces were determined to stop the march by any means necessary.

During the Saturday morning, various anti-NF meetings were being held both indoors and outdoors in South London. The Bishop of Southwark together with an exiled South African Bishop and various clergy of a variety of faiths, assorted local councillors and representatives of trade unions and the Indian Workers Association had joined the Mayor of Lewisham in a counter demonstration through the streets of Lewisham towards the NF assembly area in New Cross. The so-called 'peaceful march against the NF' was halted by the Police in the centre of Lewisham and ordered to turn back.Large numbers of non-whites would leave this protest as it dispersed and joined the SWP sponsored mobs on New Cross Road and Clifton Rise.

The NF marchers assembled on Achilles Street numbered about 1,000 strong and moved off behind a colour party of Union Jacks. The Police flanking the NF marchers tried to clear away anti-NF protestors and struggled to keep the column moving as large numbers of anti-NF demonstrators launched violent attacks on both the Police and the NF column. The anti-NF mobs hurled every possible missile against the marchers, fireworks, bricks, bottles, bags of urine and ammonia. While organised squads of Marxist thugs charged into the march armed with knives, coshes, iron bars and pickaxe shafts; one remarkable piece of TV news coverage showed an elderly NF supporter carrying a Union Jack being set upon and dragged into the gutter by three anti-NF demonstrators where he was kicked and beaten unconscious by a thug in a red t-shirt.(Amazingly the Police did nothing to prevent this). The stolen NF Union Jack flag was later burned in the streets by a gang of 'anti-racists'.

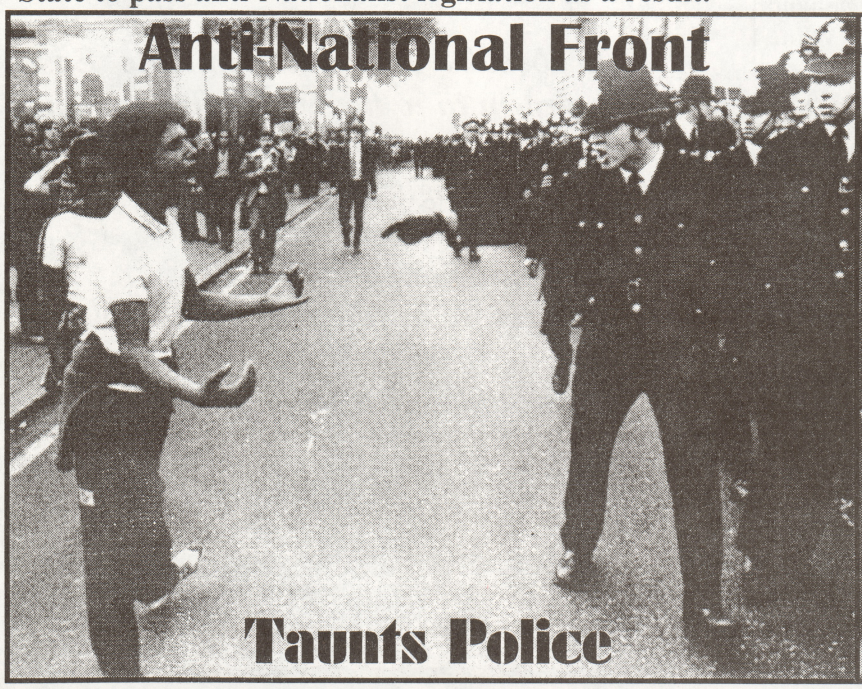
The NF column and the Police escort battled along the streets, New Cross Road, Clifton Rise, Lewisham High Street, everywhere the sky was filled bricks, bottles and smoke bombs. The NF marchers were unarmed and unprepared for such violence, the Police at this time had no riot gear available for issue, but the anti-NF mobs were armed, hysterical and dangerous. A large part of the NF column was made up of pensioners from South East London, keen to protest against against the muggers who preyed on them, these elderly citizens bore the brunt of the Marxist mob violence on the l3th of August 1977.

The NF stewards were heavily outnumbered but fought hard to hold the march column together while the ill-equipped Police struggled to keep the streets open, time and again younger NF supporters had to battle to rescue older compatriots who were under attack. At the end of a violent passage through the streets of Lewisham, the surviving NF marchers assembled on the carpark at Cressingham Road for the end of march rally. Despite the ordeal, many were in good spirits as they listened to speeches by John Tyndall (NF Chairman), Martin Webster (NF Activities Organiser) and local NF leaders. The end of the day was loudly cheered but the fate of future events was sealed. The State would not permit another Lewisham.

The media blamed the National Front for the violence and disorder at Lewisham. The final total was about 220 arrests (nearly all anti-NF), 270 Police injured (fifty-six hospitalised) and after the march was over, Lewisham Police station was subjected to a determined attack by a Left-wing mob reinforced by large gangs of young Blacks.

Of course everything was blamed on the NF. Today the Left still talk about Lewisham as their great victory, not because the NF march was stopped, which it was not, but because the Marxists, Communists, Anarchists and fellow-travellers were able to mobilise in such numbers, riot and disorder, but forced the State to pass anti-Nationalist legislation as a result.



NEWS AND VIEWS

By The Fox.

"WE CANNOT BE A BEACON TO THE WORLD UNLESS THE TALENTS OF ALL THE PEOPLE SHINE THROUGH. NOT ONE BLACK HIGH COURT JUDGE; NOT ONE BLACK CHIEF CONSTABLE OR PERMANENT SECRETARY; NOT ONE BLACK ARMY OFFICER ABOVE THE RANK OF COLONEL. NOT ONE ASIAN EITHER. NOT A RECORD OF PRIDE FOR THE BRITISH ESTABLISHMENT. AND NOT A RECORD OF PRIDE FOR PARLIAMENT THAT THERE ARE SO FEW BLACK AND ASIAN MPs"

These are the words of a traitor. These are the words of the British Prime Minister Tony Blair at the Labour conference.

Much has happened since the last issue of Broadsword and the general election - which is no doubt the start of a fast decline for Britain. Therefore, this issue's article of the news will be based on news of home; to try and bring a little more awareness of the problems of multi-culturism in Britain.

A little good news for the far-right with the imprisonment of Lewis Ruskin the founder of the anti-racist magazine Searchlight. Ruskin, a top solicitor, was jailed for 18 months for plundering clients accounts of more than £218,000 to keep his practice afloat. Money was plundered from estates of people who had died to damages awards to a girl with cerebral palsy and a building worker injured falling off scaffolding.

While justice temporarily prevails in our favour, the violent attack on John Tyndall - the leader of the BNP - and his wife proves evermore that the far-left are incapable of anything other than violence when it comes to political indifferences. Tyndall and his wife were taken to hospital following a fight on the doorstep of The Swan pub in Stratford when anti-nazi's steamed in and punched, kicked and stamped on them.

A witness said: "He was a mess. There was blood all over the place."

While on the subject of violence, in the town of Oldham, Lancashire, racial attacks by the immigrants upon the White community is on the increase. So much so that Chief Supt Eric Hewitt, head of Oldham police, has revealed that 44% of racial victims were White compared to 32% of Asians, while 34% of known offenders were White compared to 51% who were Asian.

During August and September 1997, the Oldham local newspaper had published between 20 and 30 articles of ethnic racism towards the White community, mostly of muggings and beating with the odd injury by weapons, and on such people as women with their children.

Oldham is just an example of the racial intolerance by the ethnic, and yet the Home Secretary, Jack Straw, told a Black-Jewish group at Westminster that the government is committed to introducing new measures to counter racial violence and racial harassment.

"I want to be sure that those who commit racist crimes are effectively punished." Would Mr Straw be prepared to imprison a majority of Asian youths of Oldham who have been blamed for most of such crimes.

While the new government foolishly believe that Britain can unite as a multi-cultural nation, a London University researcher has shown that years of anti-racist efforts in schools and communities have produced a backlash among White adolescents.

Young Whites, convinced that teachers are leaning over backwards to be anti-racist will no longer give them a fair hearing in any dispute involving Black or Asian children, have developed a sense of persecution which fuels racism. The rise of Black Pride had left White children feeling culturally disenfranchised.

There is no doubt that the line of racial tolerance is growing thin and yet the ignorant of the British still believe the cake can be cut into nine eighths and shared with all denominations. This national delusion has given false hopes to the inhabitants of the third world who feel it would be more prosperous to become refugees in another country that is fractured to almost breaking point. Unless Britain seals the fissures of resentment and removes the corrosive belief of multi-culturalism, Britain will become the very reason refugees fled their own lands to be here.

It has been revealed that three illegal immigrants out of four are staying in Britain because of the Government's inability to remove them. According to The Daily Telegraph, thousands of people from Eastern Europe, South America, Africa and Asia have "disappeared" within the country.

And what of internal conflict if Britain should go to war against the countries of origin of the British ethnic minority. I asked a 28 year old male Asian shop keeper of Muslim faith, whose parents came over from Kashmir, whether he would fight for Britain.

Q. Do you consider yourself British ?

A. Yes. I am British.

Q. Do you have a British Passport?

A. Yes.

Q. War breaks out in the middle East. Britain is drawn in to the war to fight against a Muslim state. Britain requires its males to be conscripted to fight the war. Would you be conscripted to fight for Britain?

A. No. I would not.

Q. If you refuse to fight for Britain, would you go back to Kashmir.

A. No. I would stay here and fight another way.

He did not say what he meant by: "I would fight another way."

OUR READERS SAY

Dear Editor,

It is noteworthy in your columns that religion is often referred to, yet not once have I read in the columns concerning the growing influence of Spiritualism. Spiritualism to spiritualists is a religion and therefore should not be left out of the madness of intended doctrines of indoctrinated religion.

I do not wish to upset any religionist as I have neither studied nor practised debased things in the name of God or Jesus Christ. Yet being of sound mind and equal to any God including Allah, I state my sanity on it that I will defeat any Theologian, Priest, Father, Mufti, Pope, Archbishop plus Rabbi etc.

With enthusiasm I look forward to debating religion, law, and genetics with one called Jeff. Also, I would appreciate anyone's help in these columns to pin Jeff down and force him to reveal the fullness of the law he continually refers to.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Racial Greetings,

I am an American National Socialist. I got your address from your very interesting web site, and would like to hear more about your organisation and its fight for a White Britain. Please send me a copy of your merchandise catalogue and information on your publication.

Thank you 88/14

The next letter was published in Adscene newspaper by G.S. of Canterbury, Friday 20th June 1997, It was not published in its entirety. G.S. has sent the full letter to Broadsword, here it is:

Only one letter (on the sad saga of executions in WWII) mentioned Hitler's Germany.

It was Germany's 'Operation Barbarossa' which pounded Stalin's invasion force to bits only 14 days before Stalin planned to invade Europe.

He had thousands of Russian-built Douglas DC3s to carry 1,000,000 fully equipped paratroops once his invasion force had reached airfields near enough to attack Southern England.

Only the survivors of Eastern Germany know what a Russian invasion meant. Barbarity, mass rape, mass suicide, starvation, disease and mass murder by the millions. Millions of German females of all ages were repeatedly raped in the most brutal way by Stalin's 'gallant Russian soldiers' (reference psychotic Ilya Ehrenberg and her broadcast during the Russian invasion at the close of the war).

The total inhumanity of the Soviets is largely hushed up. The bandits of Hollywood are more interested in making billions out of race-hate films - anti-German 'epics'.

There's no money in a truthful film. But there is plenty of money in race-hate films against Germany.

By G.S.

Never before in my life have I suffered such pain and anguish as at the hands of the uncompassionate judge who stripped me of my rights as mother and protector of my cherished four year old daughter, and pushed her into the lair of the man who - by my baby's own admission - has allowed her to be subjected to sexual abuse.

For two and a half years I have battled through the courts to protect my little child from abuse by her birth-father, only to be overruled by the same judge time after time. I now live in despair without my little girl while trying to comfort my other daughter who constantly asks me why.

If this is the power that the judge has, then I would say to hell with the judiciary, who did not deliver my cherished little one into this world, and who have not seen her suffering or mine.

I am a National Socialist, and I have fought through hell and high water for what I believe in, even to the sacrifice of my own dear little child. I would encourage you all to fight for the same, whatever the cost.

My fight goes on.

Mother Goose.

AN APPEAL TO THE YOUTH OF BRITAIN !
AN APPEAL TO THE PENSIONERS OF BRITAIN !
TO THE UP AND COMING GENERATION AND TO THE SENIOR GENERATION.

To those who will make this country's future and to those who know this country's past we ask you to join together and support our attack on the forces which are trying to destroy the unique British culture and heritage which was created over centuries by our peoples' blood, sweat and tears and hard work.

The time has come to stop the destruction of our Nation's culture and heritage by the forces of integration and immigration. The traditional British way of life is being eroded and replaced by an artificial international culture made up of everything foreign which is being poured into our country. The bedrock of our Nation is being melted down and recast as an alien alloy. Our people are disappearing into a mixed race melting pot.

Those who would destroy our Nationhood and national pride and national identity are now using a mixture of religions and multiculturalism to undermine our communities and eradicate the history of the British as a people.

Multi-faith gatherings, joint worship by many faiths under one roof is the first step to one faith made up of many faiths and one multi-racial congregation where all are the same colour and culture. Religious gatherings of all faiths and creeds worshipping together, Christian and Muslim, Sikh and Catholic, Hindu and Jew, all blending together to serve a one world, multi-cultural future. These people want to destroy racial differences, remove national boundaries and merge all cultures into one. Religious "togetherness" is the latest tool to undermine our British way of life. They want to turn our country into a human melting-pot.

Do not let them succeed, fight back now. The counter attack must begin against the multi-culturalists before the multi-racial meltdown goes any further.

We must act now before it is too late.....ten more years of the present level of multi-culturalism, international integration and inter-racial mixing and the only true British will be in the museums.....our Race and Nation, our Folk and Heritage must not be consigned to the dustbins of history. Support the British Movement in the battle to save what is British.

It is not the policy of this publication to incite hatred or to intimidate any group or individual. It is the intention of this publication to present the aims, objectives and policy of the British Movement, to inform and educate; to promote the cause of British National Socialism.
